International Women's Day 2022: Inspirational Women Artists

Open Call

Introduction

To celebrate International Women's Day 2022, 'a space' arts are hosting a silent auction of artworks by female identifying artists, with a two week exhibition at our flagship venue, God's House Tower (GHT).

Each contributing artist will create an A4 image, which could be a photograph, a drawing, a print, a collage or a printed digital artwork inspired by a female identifying artist who has influenced their artistic practice. To accompany the artwork, artists will be asked to write 50 -100 words about their chosen artist.

These artworks will be exhibited in the Crawford Room at GHT over two weekends in the lead up to International Women's Day. During that time, visitors will be able to bid in a silent auction to buy any of the works. For each artwork sold 50% of the proceeds will go to the artist who made the work and 50% will be donated to Yellow Door, a Southampton-based charity that prevents and responds to domestic and sexual abuse.

On Tuesday 8th March, there will be an event at GHT during which any final bids can be made and exhibiting artists can meet and celebrate. There will be an announcement about how much money has been raised but individual sales and prices will be kept private. Any unsold works will be returned to the artist via post.
